Python Module Index	9

This is an experimental python package for generating renderings of complex scripts. This is based on pypdflib and pangocairo.

The module currently has two functions

- a wiki to pdf generater
- a complex script renderer

Installation

You will need to have pango and cairo installed on your system along with pycairo. You will probably have them if you have pygtk on your system.

pycairo does not install in virtualenvs, so use your distribution's package manager to install pycairo or use pip to install pycairo system wide.
